

Bird Words

There are lots of neat words you can use when talking about birds. Some of these words are hidden in the letters below. How many can you find? Words can be horizontal or vertical. For extra fun, try to match each word to its description at the bottom, or use those clues to help look for words.

V F L O C K I C F I S H
 O P T E A D C H L C E P
 S L W P W T R I R H E D
 W F E A T H E R S I D N
 I L E C A D S P Z C S E
 N Y T F I M T B D K J S
 G E G G L I A E H O O T
 S C W I N G S R A E M C
 P D O W N R Y R T S B L
 A G V B E A K I C O U A
 N V M O L T J E H N G W
 E B I R D E R S L G S S

- _____ What a bird pecks and eats with.
- _____ What a bird flies with.
- _____ Birds have these, but no other living animal does.
- _____ Birds flap their wings to do this.
- _____ A baby bird hatches from one of these.
- _____ Some birds use these to grab prey.
- _____ A general word for a baby bird.
- _____ Many birds build these to lay their eggs in.
- _____ The feathers on the rear of a bird.
- _____ When a baby bird comes out of an egg.
- _____ A large number of birds traveling together.
- _____ A person who enjoys birdwatching.
- _____ Some birds have these feathers, which stand up on their heads.
- _____ A type of fluffy feather, often covering baby birds.
- _____ When a bird replaces its feathers.
- _____ The length of a bird's wings, from wingtip to wingtip.
- _____ A series of bird chirps and tweets.
- _____ Some birds do this so they can spend winter in a new place.
- _____, _____, _____, _____ Some sounds that birds make (four separate words).
- _____, _____, _____, _____ Some of the things that birds eat (four separate words).